Case Number:18F007858

Date and Time:Sat Jun 09 03:12:45 MDT 2018

Narrative:

I was assigned to contact Detective Wilson of Ogden PD regarding a welfare check. Detective Wilson advised me that a male had gone to the Police Department earlier in the day and claimed he was involved in the murder of a female, naming Sarah Frampton [REDACTED]. After checking the alleged location and not finding any evidence, Ogden PD was attempting to locate Sarah.

Two addresses were requested to be checked: 11429 S District Dr and 5415 W. Daybreak Parkway. I advised Detective Wilson that the two addresses were generic to store parking lots. He then provided me with two names of possible associates of Sarah, Richard and Melissa Brimhall. I located a recent address for Richard Brimhall and agreed to have officers check all three locations for possible contact.

I requested Officers [REDACTED] Baker and [REDACTED] Petersen respond to 10172 S Knox Ct and contact the residents for possible information. Officer Visser responded and checked the parking lot at 5415 W. Daybreak Parkway, not finding Sarah. I responded to 11429 S. District Dr and checked all parking areas without locating her.

Officers Baker and Petersen spoke to Richard and found that he was Sarah's brother. They had not seen Sarah for approximately 5-6 months. They provided two possible contacts and phone numbers for people who may have had recent interaction with her.

Emmaline Hopkins (Sarah's Daughter) [REDACTED]

Christopher (Sarah's Ex Husband) [REDACTED]

I called Detective Wilson, advised him of actions taken and information obtained for his follow up.

Case Narrative

Case Number: 16F012546

Date and Time: September 2, 2016 at 14:23 hours.

Initial Information:

On the above date and time, I was dispatched to a suspicious circumstance. The complainant, Sarah Vave ([REDACTED]), stated her daughter was being contacted through Facebook by a person impersonating another model.

Officer's Actions:

Sarah stated her daughter, [REDACTED], was receiving messages on Facebook from a model out of Columbia. Sarah said she monitors [REDACTED] Facebook account to block people who are contacting [REDACTED] for wrong reasons.

Sarah said she came across a female named Lavanda [REDACTED] Cediel on Facebook, claiming to be a super model outside of the United States. Sarah said she used a facial recognition application, and identified the female in the photos to be Jessica Cediel, who is actually a real super model out of Columbia. Sarah said Lavanda [REDACTED] Cediel only has four hundred friends, compared to the account of Jessica Cediel's at nearly 2 million. Sarah said the Facebook Name Lavanda must be fake, and possibly targeting her daughter for human trafficking.

Sarah said Lavanda has been sending [REDACTED] messages, asking her to travel to Europe, for further opportunities in modeling. Sarah said [REDACTED] is a successful model, and has been offered positions in movies. Sarah said Lavanda has not tried to meet with [REDACTED], or has asked for money. Sarah said she had no further evidence to state Lavanda is involved in human trafficking.

Sarah requested I pass this information to Detectives for further investigation. I advised Sarah that identification of this individual could be difficult, and that at this time there has no initial crime committed. Sarah said she understood that, but would be willing to offer Detectives an opportunity to use [REDACTED] Facebook page to lure the suspect in. I told Sarah I would pass this information along to Detectives, and speak with my supervisors.

In the time being, I did advise Sarah to block Lavanda from [REDACTED] Facebook page. Sarah said she was afraid that wouldn't fix the problem, since some people could be very adamant in pursuing a stalking incident with [REDACTED]. I then told Sarah that completely shutting down [REDACTED] Facebook page would be the best way to protect her from possible stalkers. Sarah stated if she completely shut down [REDACTED] Facebook page, it could ruin opportunities for her career in modeling. I told Sarah it was ultimately up to her on how she felt necessary to protect [REDACTED].

This case is informational, and will be forwarded to detectives for further review.
